New Members

There were no new members in March.

A group you might look into joining is the National Woodcarvers Association. They publish an outstanding magazine called Chip Chats every other month. Dues are $16 per year. They can be reached at 513.561.0627 or nwca@chipchats.org. The web site is <http://www.chipchats.org>.

Oregon Woodcarver's Rendezvous Set for September

The Oregon woodcarving rendezvous is again scheduled for Thursday, September 13 thru Sunday, September 16 at Canyonview Camp in Silverton. Classes start at noon on Thursday and run thru noon on Sunday. Sessions are 9:00 AM and 1:00 PM. The Fall Rendezvous will be held at Canyonview Camp (3 miles south of Silverton). There will be multiple-session class periods per day. Some of the classes being discussed are Butternut duck, Kachina Eagle Dancer, Mesa Verde in cottonwood, Janet Clemen Snowman. Other sessions include chip carving, caricature carvings, and wood burning.

A returning class by the National Fish Carvers is also on the schedule. They will be having a two session class on Saturday that will feature the painting of a "California Golden Trout". The class will paint a casting of a trout (casting cost $10.00). All paints and instruction is included in the class. The class is limited to eight (8) registrants.

Added to the schedule - Cindy Adams teaching a woodburning class on Friday afternoon. If you want to take the class, limited to 10, you are requested to bring your wood burner to the class. The closed class is Linda Schmitts' woodburning on gourds. The Butternut Duck class is also full and closed.

For more information, Call Dave Disselbrett at 503.390.9125, Everett Koontz at 503.581.8428 or go to the Capital Carver's web site.
