

Carvers Corner

Capital Woodcarvers of Salem

May 2013

President's Message

I hope this message finds all of you well as can be and carving up a storm. As many of you know, I had a hip replacement do-over on April 29th. The hip being replaced was metal on metal, and didn't work. Since that time I've had quite a ride with some ups and downs -- but every thing seems to be progressing well now. It will be great to not have any pain in that hip and get back to normal.

I will not be at this months meeting so Frank Campbell will pre- side . I'll be back next month and will be anxious to see and hear about what has been happening . The June program is "Carving Eyes and the Nose" presented by Everett Carter, so be sure to bring your tools and something to take notes with. Those of you who have seen Everett's work will enjoy this presentation.

We have a whole lot of things happening in the near future including the State Fair and the Artisan Village at the State Fair. Lou Wakefield has represented us very well and I'm sure he will have an important message for all of us who will be entering carvings and carving at the fair this year.

We are well under way with the carvings for us to sell at the Christmas Bazaar at the Albany fairgrounds in December. Dave Disselbrett will explain in more detail and will have wood available for the ornaments for the bazaar and the ornament exchange with the Sacramento carving club.

Be sure and bring your carvings for show and tell, everyone enjoys your carvings and any tips you can share with the group.

I've heard some of you talking about trips and activities you have done or have planned to do, so hot or cold have a great time. Don't forget that we have a pot-luck dinner in Busch park in August and no meeting. Start thinking about which of your favorite dishes you are going to share. I'll see all of you at the July meeting -Till then keep carving and keep having fun!

Don
