President's Message

Hello everyone. I would like to start off by thanking Denis Miller for his presentation on spoon carving at the May meeting.

For those who could not attend the May meeting, the main subject was discussing ways to get people interested and involved in woodcarving. If you know anyone interested in learning how to carve, please encourage them to attend open carving on Fridays, 1:00PM, at Center 50+ and on the first and third Thursdays 9:00AM at Keizer Art Association. There is also a Monday class at 6:45PM, that is hosted by Center 50+ for a cost of $5.00 per session (1st one is free).

I would love members to volunteer to make an instructional video which can be published on our Club website. A link to the video can be shared with anyone interested in wood carving. The club will assist in making the video. Let us know if you would like to make a carving video

If you have any suggestions that could help promote woodcarving, please contact Nadine Romero.

The next Club meeting will be on June 24th at 7pm at Center 50+. Cynthia Longhat-Adams will give a presentation on her unique wood burning method. Snacks will be provided by Jack Dalton and Bob Lanning. I hope to see you there.

2025 Oregon Woodcarvers Rendezvous

2025 Oregon Woodcarvers Rendezvous

September is fast approaching so get ready for the Oregon Woodcarvers Rendezvous. This year's event will be great thanks to Donna Miller and her helpers. The Rendezvous information, registration form, class list, and schedule are attached to this newsletter and are available for download at <https://capitolwoodcarvers.org/rendezvous2025/rendezvousregistrationforms.pdf>. Please complete and return the registration to Donna as soon as possible.

The class list is looking great but additional classes can be added to the schedule. If you would like to teach a class please let Donna know at capitolwoodcarvers@gmail.com to have your class added to the schedule. It is always fun to learn new techniques and processes so plan on teaching and/or taking a class.

A fun activity at the Rendezvous is the raffle. If you have tools, projects, supplies, etc. that you no longer need or want, please consider donating them for the raffle. Other woodcarvers will appreciate your donations.

See you at the Rendezvous

Christmas Ornament Sale

Christmas Ornament Sale

It is time to start working on Christmas ornaments for the Rickreall Ornament Sale. The sale will be on the first weekend in November, so it is not too early to start carving those ornaments. This event is the only fundraiser our club has so please participate by carving and donating an ornament.

Club Shows

Scheduled Club Shows/Events

Capitol Woodcarvers is trying to increase its membership and one way we are achieving this is through building community visibility. Our members create outstanding excellent-quality carvings and other wood art. We want the public to see who we are and what we do. To achieve this goal of visibility we participate in several shows such as:

Capitol Woodcarvers Annual Show

Keizer Art Association Gallery Show

Coastal Carvers Show

Oregon State Fair

As a club member you are encouraged to show off your work at each of these events. Capitol Woodcarvers appreciates your participation in advertising our club.

Open Carving Sessions

Carving Sessions

Open carving sessions are fun and great sharing/learning experiences. Carvers at these sessions are working on interesting and often unique projects that they are willing to share with other carvers. Woodburning, bark carving, wildfowl carving, chip carving, relief carving, caricature carving, just about any type of carving you can think of is being worked on.

Available Open Carving Sessions:

Center 50+ Friday
afternoons.
1:00PM – 4:00PM

Keizer Art Association
first and third
Thursday mornings.
9:00AM – 1:00PM

Silverton Art Center
Wednesday
afternoons.
1:00PM – 3:00PM

These open carving sessions offer great venues for carver interaction and socializing in addition to carving. Bring your tools and join in. You'll enjoy these sessions.

Thursday carvers meet for breakfast at Mommy and Madi's before the session at 8:00AM. Friday afternoon carvers meet for lunch before the Friday session. See the Lunch Schedule in this newsletter for time and location for Friday lunches.

Teach a Carving Class

Teach a Carving Class

Interested in teaching a carving or pyrography class? Capitol Woodcarvers will help you organize, advertise, conduct, and assist in any way needed to make your class a success. There are a lot of new carvers and even experienced carvers who would like to learn a new skill or technique. Your class could help individual students and at the same time promote the art of woodcarving and our club.

Possible class venues:

- Center 50+
- Keizer Art Association
- Area Shows/Carving Events
- Senior Residence Facilities
- Clubs / Organizations
- Hobby / Art Stores
- Carving-Tool Stores
- Oregon Woodcarvers Rendezvous

Let us know what class you are interested in teaching, and we will work with you to make it happen. We have carving and pyrography loaner kits available for new students so that they do not have to make a large investment in tools to take your class.

Fun Club Project

Club Project

Several years ago, our club members participated in a group project that involved carving a nativity scene. This project was a lot of fun, and it involved many members. The objective of this project was to have members carve individual parts of a nativity scene. For example, someone carved a wise man. Someone else carved the animals, and another member carved a shepherd, etc.

Carvers coordinated with each other during the process to ensure the theme was consistent and all carvings were compatible. A lot of the carving was done at open sessions where progress was shared and help was available when needed.

The result was the beautiful nativity scene shown below.

It would be a fun project if we did something similar again. Maybe we could carve a group of campers at a campfire, or musicians performing Christmas carols. A Christmas theme would be appealing to visitors to our ornament booth. Maybe a group of elves working in Santa's workshop. Let us know your ideas for a theme and we'll try to get this fun project started.

If you would like to participate in this, or a similar project, please let us know at capitolwoodcarvers@gmail.com.

Oregon Rendezvous Class List

Classes are open to all carvers and take place in the main auditorium.

These fun and informative classes are great opportunities to try new mediums or techniques. If you have never created pyrography art, carved cottonwood bark or an animal mask, these classes will expand your experience and skill set. Check the class list and take advantage of learning what other carvers are doing.

Please circle the classes you are registering for.

Materials are provided by the instructors unless otherwise stated in the class list.
