President's Message

What a great time to be a woodcarver! Like many of you I have had the occasion to share some of my carvings and enjoy your company while we shared the art of woodcarving. I recently attended the Silverton Art Festival and staffed a table with the Silver Chips. Mike Reilfel and Tom Seymour were great company. If you are looking for another opportunity to carve, talk to one of them about their club. Silverton is a great little town and a fun place to carve. I must tell you that it was a real treat to watch the children smile, giggle, and express their wonder over Mike's marionettes.

This past weekend I spent some time with many of you at the Oregon State Fair. The repeated "ooh" and "ahh" over your art was incredibly inspiring. People of all ages engaged in this opportunity and if nothing else, they became curious about woodcarving. Lots of flyers, email addresses and phone numbers were exchanged. Who knows maybe we'll see some new faces at our next meeting. When I was asked by one man how I got started in woodcarving, I was very pleased to tell him that in part, it happened at the Oregon State Fair.

If you have not already signed up for the Woodcarving Rendezvous, it's not too late. Please go to the club website and check out the list of options. Get signed up for a class, or two or three and I'll see you there.

I'd be remiss if I didn't remind you that the Empty Bowls event is also rapidly approaching. It's time to start carving some spoons. Please reach out to Denis Miller if you have any questions.

The election season is also coming soon. If you are interested in serving on the Capitol Woodcarvers Board of Directors, we would love to hear from you. Everett Carter is the chair of our nomination committee and will be soliciting nominations very soon. Please reach out to him if you have any questions

My celebration and excitement over the art of woodcarving was tempered just a bit when I recently heard that Bob Karr passed away. Bob was a valued member of our club and will be missed. As of this writing, information about a service is pending. When we hear something, we will share it with the club. Meanwhile, please keep Bob and his family in your thoughts.

I'll be pausing my woodcarving adventure for a bit as Bonnie and I have a short vacation planned. I'll be back to making some chips very soon. I'll see you at the Rendezvous and I'll look forward to sharing my woodcarving journey with you. Enjoy the summer!

Plan on Attending an Upcoming Meeting

September 27 Everett Carter will demo carving an ornament.

This will be a great demo and just in time for the upcoming Christmas Ornament Sale.

October 25 Cheryl Ayres will present on power carving and how to add detail and enhance your carvings with power.

November 29 will feature the annual club elections and pie and ice cream social.

State Fair Entries

State Fair Entries

The following images show some of the entries submitted to the State Fair by club members. Each carving is a beautiful piece of art.

Congratulations to all who entered carvings into the State Fair. Every entry was great. Not all entries are included here but all entries deserved a ribbon. Capitol Woodcarvers has so much talent and experience. It is nice that our members share their art.

Wonderful Carvings, Congratulations

Meeting the Public at the State Fair

Club members enjoyed three days at the Fair. It was a great event for Capitol Woodcarvers. Hundreds of people stopped by our booth to see us at work. It was nice hearing visitors' comments about our club and the quality of the carvings on display.

Thank you to all who participated. It was a big success which would not have been possible without your support.

A special thanks to Jack Dalton who organized this event.

Thankyou to all Participants
